and "TOPICS OF THE DAY"

THURSDAY, AUGUST 5th

Elaine Hammerstein 'WHISPERS'

Adventure treading on the heels of adventure through a thrilling haze of romance. The forked tongue of rumor reached out in an effort to destroy the life's happiness of an innocent girl whose flirtation had not been wise, but far too successful.
A thrilling, gripping story of society's ruthless scandal mongers.

turned Saturday after a ten-days' visit to her brother, Assistant Attorney General G. B. Smedley and family, at Austin, Texas.

TWO SPOTS

The Smart Alecks who are selling speculative stocks to the country folks should not let their companies bust up before they get out of town.

At this time of year when the cities are hot and dust and sweaty, an intense desire to renew the ties of kinship with their country coun-sins comes over our city relatives.

The hardest worked domestic animal on many farms is the farmer's wife.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton to Jesse Pedcord, 24, of near Paris, and Miss Alice Blackburn, 22, of Cynthiana.

EUTH—HUFFMAN.

—Mr. Ralph Huffman, of Covington, and Miss Goldie Euth, of Cincinnati, were married Saturday afternoon in Cincinnati. The groom is well known here, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huffman, formerly of Paris, and a brother of Mr.
Clyde Huffman, of the R. P. Walsh clothing store. The bride is a handsome young lady of 18 and very popular with her associates in the Queen City.

KENTON—WEBB

—Asa Webb, son of James Webb, and Miss Agnes Kenton, daughter of Rolly Kenton, all of Paris, eloped to Knoxville, Tenn., Friday, and were married. They were accompanied by the groom's father, Mr.
Webb is engaged in the grocery business on Second street, in Paris.

LINVILLE—COCHRANE

—Mr. Archie Cochrane, of Paducuh, and Mrs. Nellie Linville, of Millersburg, were married Friday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T.
M. Armstrong, on Pleasant street.
Rev. J. T. Sharrard officiating.
Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony.

The bride is a handsome and attractive young woman, who for the past five years has been local manager and chief operator in the Mil-lerson office of the Bourbon Home Telephone Co. The groom is in a responsible position in the employ of the Home Telephone Co., at Paducah.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

Nine carloads of cattle were shipped from Richmond, Friday, by W.
A. Thomason, of Paris, representing the Consolidated Dressed Beef Co., of Philadelphia. The cattle were purchased from T. J. Curtis & Son, of Kirksville, Madison county, at $15 per hundred. There were 104 head in the shipment, said to have been the finest lot ever sent out of Madison county.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Womens' Missionary Society of the Methodist church will hold a business meeting in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock, this (Tuesday) afternoon. As business of importance is to come up for consideration a full attendance of the membership is urgently requested.

—The pulpit at the Methodist church was filled Sunday morning by Rev. E. E. Clements, who has for twenty years been a missionary in Cuba, stationed in Havana. Rev.
Clements will be a guest this week of Rev. C. H. Greer and family.
Rev. Greer filled his pulpit at the night service.
